

05/11/2020

Serbian Patriarch Irinej tests positive for Covid-19; remains asymptomatic and in excellent health

The Patriarch of Serbia, His Holiness Irinej, has tested positive for the coronavirus, according to an announcement issued by the Serbian Patriarchate.

The same announcement stated that Patriarch Irinej has been hospitalized in Belgrade without any viral symptoms and in excellent health.