

Mural of Metropolitan Amfilohije of Montenegro Appears in Serbia

A mural of His Eminence Metropolitan Amfilohije, the newly-departed head of the Metropolis of Montenegro of the Serbian Orthodox Church, appeared in the city of Nis, Serbia. It was painted by Sava Mišić next to an elementary school, reports Mitropolija.com.

The location of the mural was specifically chosen so children could see the portrait of Metropolitan Amfilohije and “see and feel his spirit, adopt the values that he carried, and draw nearer to Orthodoxy,” the report said.

Another mural appeared in the city of Foča in Republika Srpska in eastern Bosnia and Herzegovina. It is a painting of a famous black-and-white photo of His Eminence.

Vladimir Čaka, a young artist and the author, painted the inscription: “We are the prayer rope of your soul. Your children, your family. Goodbye dear father, go to your home. Eternal memory in the eternal Kingdom!” reports Fr. Ignaty \(Shestakov\) of Sretensky Monastery.

— pravmir.com