The memory of the saint was celebrated by the Patriarchate of Alexandria at the Patriarchal Vicariate

The memory of the saint was celebrated by the Patriarchate of Alexandria at the Patriarchal Vicariate, in Cairo's Hamzawi district, where a cell and chapel dedicated to St. Nektarios' memory are located.

The festal Vespers were held in the courtyard of the Church complex, due to COVID-19 restrictive measures, with the Patriarchal Vicar of Cairo, Metropolitan Nikodimos of Memphis, officiating at the service.
