

11/11/2020

Feast day of St. Nektarios the Wonderworker celebrated by Orthodox faithful in Perth

The Orthodox faithful in the western Australian city of Perth this week celebrated the feast day of St. Nektarios the Wonderworker, at a cathedral dedicated to the saint.

The celebrations began on the eve of the feast day with a hierarchical Vespers service, with a Hierarchical Divine Liturgy held on Monday, officiated by the Bishop of Kyanea, His Grace Elpidios.

