Russian Patriarch calls on faithful to pray for millions killed, maimed in traffic accidents

The Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, bemoaned the fact that millions of people around the world are killed or severely injured in traffic accidents every year, in a sermon that coincided with the World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims.

The Russian Patriarch's sermon was delivered from the chapel of the St. Alexander Nevsky Cathedral, where he also called on the faithful to pray for the victims.
