

19/11/2020

Orthodox mission complex in Freetown, Sierra Leone nears completion

A new complex of the Orthodox mission in the west Africa country of Sierra Leone capital is close to completion. The latest addition is an outdoor baptismal font, adjacent to the Holy cathedral of Sts. Constantine and Helen.

After 12 years of work, the complex in the capital of Freetown includes a kindergarten, a playground, administrative offices, residences and a higher education center.

