Patriarch John X wishes good health to the Archbishops of Greece and Albania

His Beatitude Patriarch John X sent two messages to inquire after the health of their Holinesses the Archbishops Ieronymos II of Greece and Anastasios of Albania, following the news of their hospitalization due to infection by the Corona pandemic. His Beatitude wishes both Archbishops a speedy recovery, asking “Christ the God, the Doctor of souls and bodies and His Most Holy Virgin Mother to always crown them with care, succor, and comfort.”
