Message by Ecumenical Patriarchate's Bishop of Vryoula

A message by the Ecumenical Patriarchate's Bishop of Vryoula, His Grace Panteleimon, has been posted today on the pages of the Orthodoxia news agency, where the hierarch notes that "...modern man has learned to speak with impudence, audacity and reckless haste, portraying that he knows all, including what is related with the sacramental life of the Church, and with the sole aim to promote himself.
