

MoC between Archdiocese of Athens, private firm aims to better promote religious tourism

A memorandum of cooperation was signed this week between the Archdiocese of Athens and the firm MTC Group, which specializes in religious tourism and pilgrimages.

A joint statement later referred to the use of alternative forms of promotion, due to the ongoing public health condition

