

24/11/2020

Romanian Church decries printing of ecclesiastical calendars by political party

The Patriarchate of Romania this week issued a stern condemnation against the printing and distribution of pseudo-ecclesiastical calendars by a political party in the country, printed materials that are rife with mistakes, omissions and erroneous references, along with logos of the political party.