Head of Moscow Patriarchate's Synodal Department for Church Charity-Social Ministry comforts patients in hospital's coronavirus ward

The Bishop of Orekhovo-Zuevo, His Grace Panteleimon, the head of the Moscow Patriarchate's Synodal Department for Church Charity and Social Ministry, on Tuesday comforted patients being treated for the Covid-19 virus at the Russian capital's 52nd hospital.

His Grace wore a special protection suit in order to enter the coronavirus ward, where he spoke with several patients in the hospital's ICU.

Panteleimon expressed his thanks and support to healthcare professionals, while praying for a speedy recovery of those afflicted with the malady.
