First Christmas carols sung by pupils for Archbishop of Australia

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise this week, as students of the All Saints Greek Orthodox Grammar School, who in anticipation of Christmas, visited the headquarters of the Holy Archdiocese in Sydney to announce the joyful message of the birth of Christ.

Archbishop Makarios warmly thanked the children for their visit, while offering the latter treats and gifts, as well as his paternal wishes and blessing.
