

Steady improvement in the health of Archbishop of Albania Anastasios

The condition of the Archbishop of Tirana, Durrës and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, continues to improve on a daily basis, while the Primate of the Orthodox Church in Albania remains in an in-house quarantine after being released days ago from an Athens hospital.

The latest medical tests conducted on the Archbishop yielded excellent results, according to a press release issued by the Archdiocese in Tirana on Friday.

In message to the faithful, the beloved hierarch issued his deepest appreciation for the continuous interest in his health, while reciting Romans 12.12: "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."