

Ecumenical Patriarch officiates at a Patriarchal-Synodal Divine Liturgy of Thronal Feast of Ecumenical Patriarchate

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All-Holiness Bartholomew, over the weekend officiated at a Patriarchal and Synodal Divine Liturgy of the Thronal Feast of Ecumenical Patriarchate, held on the eve of the Feast of Saint Andrew, the founder of the Church of Constantinople.

His All-Holiness was accompanied by a delegation of the Orthodox Church of Finland at the Patriarchal Cathedral of St. George.

The Divine Liturgy was also attended by the visiting Prime Minister of Ukraine, Denys Shmyhal, who was accompanied by members of his Cabinet.

The con-celebratory service was held in strict compliance with COVID-19 protective measures.

