Greece's consul general in Perth visits Holy Archdiocese of Western Australia

Greece's consul general in the western Australia city of Perth, Georgia Karasiotou, on Monday paid her first official visit to the new offices of the Holy Archdiocese of Western Australia, as well as to the offices of the St. Basil Home for elders, which is housed in the same building.

The Greek diplomat was warmly welcomed by the Bishop of Kyanes, His Grace Elpidios, who briefed her about various issues related to the Archdiocese in Perth.
