The Archbishop of Canada, His Eminence Sotirios, urged the bishops and priests of the Archdiocese to officiate at more Divine Liturgies during the week.

In a letter sent ahead of Christmas, the hierarch said "...Officiate in the morning and save the Holy Communion...Invite Christians by families to come and commune.

Set day and time so that no Christian stays without receiving the Holy Communion from now until Christmas. It is up to you. It depends on good organization in your community."
