

11/12/2020

Romanian Church signs protocol with other state entities, pledging to aid efforts at preventing, combating people trafficking

The Romanian Orthodox Church, the Romanian interior ministry, the municipality of Bucharest and the National Service Against People Trafficking on Thursday signed a protocol of cooperation to prevent and combat this vile criminal activity.

The protocol's signing coincided with the commemoration of the UN's Human Rights Day.

