

Innovative program by Orthodox Christian Youth Network of Uganda

The Bishop of Gulu, in Uganda, His Grace Silvestros, on Sunday visited with youth members of the St. Nicholas Orthodox parish in the Namungoona district, outside the capital of Kampala, in order to be briefed over their recent actions to benefit the local community and to promote sustainable development.

The latter is an innovative initiative organized by the Orthodox Christian Youth Network of Uganda.