

17/12/2020

Traditional Christmas carols sung for Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I

Traditional Christmas carols were sung to the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, on Tuesday afternoon by the educators and graduates of the Bosphorus metropolis' Zographeion Lyceum, led by the secondary school's director, Ioannis Demirtzoglou.

The Christmas carols resounded throughout Ecumenical Patriarchate's Phanar-district seat, as the Ecumenical Patriarch looked on from the window of the Patriarchal Office, blessing and thanking the carolers for their kind initiative, while wishing everyone health, strength and all the best from God.

