

Patriarch of Romania Daniel: Humility and prayer by the faithful so that God can help one better understand life's Divine Gifts

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, on Thursday, speaking during a brief ceremony at the Patriarchal mansion on the occasion of the Feast day of Daniel the Prophet, his namesake, called for humility and prayer by the faithful, so that God can help one better understand the life's Divine Gifts.

Several hierarchs of the Romanian Church and government officials attended the event.

A divine liturgy was also held at the Patriarchal Cathedral, officiated by the Bishop of Ploesti, His Grace Varlaam.