

21/12/2020

Romanian Patriarch treated to traditional Christmas carols

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, was treated to traditional Christmas carols over the weekend, as two youth groups from the Association of Romanian Orthodox Students visited His Beatitude at the Patriarchal residence in Bucharest.

The Romanian Patriarch congratulated the university students for their efforts and good works, underling that “...we are jubilant today that, despite the pandemic, the Nativity is celebrated.”