

Metropolitan of Dimitriados Ignatios: Of course, I will be vaccinated

The Metropolitan of Dimitriados and Almyros, His Eminence Ignatios, in statements to a television news program, referred to the efforts by both society in general and the Church to overcome the pandemic.

When asked about the vaccination, he said: “Of course, I will be vaccinated”. His Eminence also cited the coming new year, 2021, which will mark the 200th anniversary of the beginning of the Greek War of Independence.