

Children's play in Montenegro recounts eight centuries of the Serbian Orthodox Church

A children's play recounting the eight centuries of the Serbian Orthodox Church, and by extension, the Metropolitanate of Montenegro and the Littoral, using games, music and storytelling, has been videotaped.

The play, by children from the city of Bar, was due to be performed during the 21st children's conference in the city of Cetinje, which however was can.

