

Primary schools reopen in Greece

Primary school and kindergarten pupils returned to classrooms in Greece on Monday, after two months away due to a pandemic-related lockdown in the country. Secondary school pupils and tertiary level students will continue to rely on remote learning via the Internet.