

Midnight Christmas Liturgy in Saint Sava Cathedral in Belgrade

Hls Grace Bishop Stefan of Remesiana officiated the Midnight Holy Liturgy at the Saint Sava Cathedral in the Vracar district on 7 January 2020, on the feast day of the Nativity of the Lord – Christmas.

After the three-year break due to the works on the interior decoration of the Cathedral on Christmas, at midnight, the first Christmas Liturgy was celebrated. The brotherhood of the church concelebrated to the Bishop in the prayerful presence of pious faithful people. The Holy Liturgy was attended by Minister of Foreign Affairs Mr. Nikola Selakovic and the head of the Office for Cooperation with Churches and Religious Communities Vladimir Rogaovic, PhD.

After the end of the Holy Liturgy, Bishop Stefan expressed his belief that the completion of the testament church dedicated to Saint Sava, the first Serbian Archbishop, would mean a spiritual rebirth of the Serbian people, and greeted the congregation with the joyful greeting: God's peace! – Christ is born!
