Patriarch of Alexandria receives visiting Greek military delegation

The Chief of the Hellenic National Defense General Staff, Gen. Konstantinos Floros, this week headed an official Greek military delegation on a visit to Egypt.

Gen. Floros met with this Egyptian counterpart and was received by the country's Minister of Defense, Mohamed Zaki, while also observing a military exercise.

The Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Most Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, also received the Greek delegation, expressing happiness and his prayers upon receiving Floros and the rest of the delegation members.

The Patriarch cited his pleasure of the fact that Gen. Floros was the first official visitor to the Patriarchate for 2021.
