

The feast day in the church of Saint George in Belgrade

On the great feast of the Epiphany, the Holy Liturgy in the church of St. George on Banovo Brdo in Belgrade was served by archpriests-staurophors Caslav Marinkovic and Nedeljko Bozic and deacons Savo Topalovic and Djordje Petrovic, in the prayerful presence of archpriests Dragan Vidojevic and priests Zoran Radojevic and Marko Mudric.

This year, due to the complex epidemiological situation, there was no procession to the Sava Lake, as well as organized swimming and cultural and artistic program as it was in previous years. Twelve selected participants of this competition from previous years symbolically swam for the Holy Cross in the lake in Ada Ciganlija. Before the start of the competition, the swimmers were blessed by the archpriest-staurophor Slavko Bozic and archpriest Dragan Vidovic.

Representatives of the Gendarmerie swam for the Precious Cross: Milos Tadic, Petar Krstic, Miroslav Stjepanovic, Marko Milanovic, Nemanja Grba, Dusan Petrovic and Miroljub Kojadinovic; as well as representatives of Svibor: Uros Nikolic, Nikola Ristic, Miodrag Ristic, Marko Joksimovic, Miomir Radulovic, Jugoslav Djordjeski.
