Archbishop Elpidophoros of America: ‘Opposition to anti-Semitism is a measure of society’s spiritual health or sickness’

Archbishop Elpidophoros of America marked International Holocaust Remembrance Day with a post on social media on Wednesday.

On Twitter, he wrote in English: “Our opposition to anti-Semitism is a measure of our society’s spiritual health or sickness. Every person of faith should confront and challenge stereotyping, discrimination and dehumanization. That’s how we truly honor Holocaust Remembrance Day, today and every day.”

Our opposition to antisemitism is a measure of our society's spiritual health or sickness. Every person of faith should confront and challenge stereotyping, discrimination and dehumanization. That's how we truly honor #HolocaustRemembranceDay, today and every day.

Η αντίθεση στον αντισημιτισμό αποτελεί μέτρο της πνευματικής υγείας της κοινωνίας μας. Κάθε πιστός πρέπει να σταθεί απέναντι στα στερεότυπα, τις διακρίσεις και την απανθρωπία. Έτσι μόνο τιμούμε πραγματικά την Ημέρα του Ολοκαυτώματος και τώρα και πάντα.
