

Feast day of St. Isidore of Pelusium

The Church today venerates the memory of Isidore of Pelusium.

This Saint was from Alexandria, and was a disciple of St. John Chrysostom. He struggled in asceticism in a monastery at Mount Pelusium, and later became abbot there.

Isidore wrote thousands of epistles filled with divine grace and wisdom. He reposed on Feb. 4, 440.

