The Consul-General of Greece in Victoria Mr Emmanuel Kakavelakis visited the Archdiocesan offices for the District of Northcote

On Wednesday, February 3, 2021, the newly appointed Consul-General of Greece in Victoria Mr Emmanuel Kakavelakis visited the Archdiocesan offices for the District of Northcote.

During his visit he met with the Archiepiscopal Vicar, Fr Evmenios who then gave him a tour of the Holy Monastery of Axion Esti and in particular the book centre. The Consul-General also during his visit met with the district clergy and shared a meal together with them.

On behalf of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia, the Archiepiscopal Vicar, Fr Evmenios, welcomed the Consul-General to Victoria and wished him fruitful years of ministry.
