

08/02/2021

Process to return Church assets seized after WWII in Serbia nearly completed

A procedure to return assets confiscated after WWII to churches and religious communities in Serbia is almost complete.

More than 28K hectares of rural lands have already been returned to institutions of the Serbian Orthodox Church, such as the Patriarchate, the Archdiocese of Belgrade, Metropolises, monasteries and individual parishes