

Ecumenical Patriarch refers to catalytic effect of Greek language on world culture

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, on Tuesday referred to the catalytic effect of the Greek language on world culture, as well as its expressive power.

The Ecumenical Patriarch made a recorded greeting, broadcast during the online event “Seferis – Elytis: from Greece to the World”.

The event was organized by the Consulate General of Greece in Constantinople, on the occasion of International Greek Language Day.