

Motion by Church of Greece against restrictions to be heard by high court on April 2

Deliberation of an appeal filed by the Church of Greece before the Council of State, the country's highest administrative court, against pandemic-related restrictions imposed by the state, has been postponed to April 2.