

Abbot of Visoki Decani: No one can interrupt links between Serbs of Kosovo and Serbian motherland

The Abbot of the Holy Monastery of Visoki Decani, the Elder Archimandrite Sava, this week again underlined that “...no one can interrupt the links between the Serbs of Kosovo and the Serbian motherland.

The Serbs of Kosovo do not agree with the prospect of being transformed into a national minority without collective political rights, and especially without protection for their spiritual and cultural heritage.”

Saint Joseph the Hesychast

Documentary

Click here to watch

