

Climate Change as Moral Priority: The Green Patriarch

The University of Massachusetts, Lowell, is offering a webinar titled, “Climate Change as Moral Priority: The Greek Patriarch” featuring Rev. Dr. John Chrysavgis, Theological Advisor to Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew.

The webinar will be held on Tuesday, March 23, 2021 at 6pm (ET). The program will explore the question, “What have we learned about the relationship between religion and climate change, especially in this period of the pandemic?” The lecture will also discuss how the Orthodox Church and its spiritual leader Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, also known as “the Green Patriarch,” offer a unique contribution to addressing one of the most pressing challenges of our time.

To register for the webinar visit https://uml.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_N-Jo9eIURZWS_vOYSpa8Rw

The program is presented by the Maria Nousias Zamanakos, Alexandria Zamanakos and Alice Fleury Zamanakos Endowed Lectureship in Hellenic Studies and is sponsored by the Hellenic Studies Program at UMass Lowell and the History Department.

goarch.org

