

04/03/2021

Damages to churches in central Greece from 6R quake on Wed.

An earthquake measuring 6 on the Richter scale in central Greece on Wednesday, just after noon, caused serious damage to the St. Paraskevi Cathedral in the town of Tyrnavos as well as to the church of St. Nicholas in the nearby village of Koutsoheri.

Thankfully, no serious injuries were reported.

Lesser damages were reported around the central prefecture of Larissa.

REDMI NOTE 8T
AI QUAD CAMERA

Saint Joseph the Hesychast
Documentary  Click here to watch

