

Another chapel vandalized in Greece, this time by convicted terrorist's supporters

Unknown perpetrators have vandalized yet another chapel in Greece, this time targeting the St. Catherine chapel found adjacent to the St. Athanasius Cathedral in central Thessaloniki.

Graffiti and slogans were sprayed on the Holy Icons in support of Greece's most notorious inmates, a serial killer, urban terrorist and armed robber.

The latter has been on a weeks-long hunger strike demanding that he be transferred to a specific prison.
