

07/03/2021

Greek govt to allow guests at religious weddings amid lockdown

A joint ministerial decision in Greece this week clarified that up to nine people can (including the clergyman officiating at the ceremony), after all, attend religious weddings in areas of the country where the highest level of Covid-19 concentrations are recorded, i.e. areas in the “red zone”.

Saint Joseph the Hesychast
Documentary Click here to watch