

11/03/2021

Visit of officials to the Diocese of Srem and Theological Seminary in Sremski Karlovci

His Grace Bishop Vasilije of Srem and the Serbian Orthodox Seminary of Saint Arsenije in Sremski Karlovci were visited by Mr. Petar Petkovic, Director of the Office for Kosovo and Metohija; and Mileta Radojevic, Ph.D., Adviser to the Minister of Education for religious teaching and education. on 9 March 2021.

In a cordial conversation, Bishop Vasilije informed the distinguished guests of activities and projects of the Diocese of Srem. У пријатном разговору епископ Василије је упознао уважене госте са активностима и пројектима Епархије сремске. A visit to the Karlovac seminary followed, where high guests were informed by archpriest Jovan Milanovic, the rector of the seminary, about the efforts of that famous Serbian theological school to continue its activities on enlightenment and education of young generations who will take the helm of the Serbian Church.

spc.rs

Saint Joseph the Hesychast

