About the Presenter:

Bill Marianes has been called a “stewardship calling evangelist” and “the Orthodox WHY guy.” For 36 years, he was a partner and in leadership for two global law firms with over 1,100 lawyers each, where he was managing partner of the Atlanta office and practiced in the areas of corporate law, mergers and acquisitions. He retired early so that he could “work” full time for free through his Stewardship Calling ministry (www.stewardshipcalling.com) to help people and parishes discover and live their stewardship callings so that they can have a good account before the awesome judgment seat of Christ. He has presented his fully researched and proven Igniting The Flame Of True Christian Stewardship program to over 500 Orthodox parishes of all jurisdictions, seminarians at Holy Cross and St. Tikhon’s seminaries and has completed church strategic plans that cover over 26% of Orthodox Christians in the United States. He serves on the Secretariat of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops and on the Archdiocese Council (including its Legal Committee and Stewardship Committee). Bill received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Northwestern University, a Master’s Degree in Business Administration from Goizueta Graduate School of Business Administration at Emory University and a Juris Doctorate from Emory University School of Law, all with honors. He lives at Lake Lanier in Gainesville, GA and has been married to his wife, Audrey, for 39 years and has two daughters, Dr. Alexis Marianes, a global researcher, and Eliana Marianes, a professional actress.
