Portrait of reposed Metropolitan Amphilochios unveiled at historic Monastery of the Holy Archangels

A portrait of the reposed Metropolitan of Montenegro and the Littoral Amphilochios was unveiled on Sunday – the Sunday of Orthodoxy – at the snow-covered Monastery of the Holy Archangels, near the town of Prizren, in Kosovo and Metohija. The historic monastery was founded by Stefan Uroš IV Dušan in the 14th century and served as his final resting place up until the 1920s.

The portrait was gifted to the monastery by academic and iconographer Maja Todic from Gracanica
