Greek Army military band plays 'For Faith & Homeland' on Independence Day parade - (PHOTOS)

The Greek armed forces' oldest military band - that of the Hellenic Army - under the direction of Lt. Col. Nikolaos Lafatas, was on duty on Thursday during the annual Greek Independence Day parade, accompanying the motorized and infantry units' march - on the occasion of the bicentennial of the 1821 Revolution.

The Orthodoxia News Agency acquired these exclusive photos, as the band played "For Faith & Homeland".
