

29/03/2021

Annual memorial service for great benefactors of Cairo's ethnic Greek community

The annual memorial service for the reposed great benefactors, donors and patrons of the ethnic Greek community of Cairo and the philoptochos fund was held on Sunday at the Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Cathedral in the Egyptian capital.

The Metropolitan of Memphis and Patriarchal vicar of Cairo, His Eminence Nikodimos, officiated at the service, while extolling the contributions of the community's benefactors.

Saint Joseph the Hesychast

