

Archdiocese of Athens announces tender for digitizing registry

The Holy Archdiocese of Athens this week announced a tender for the digitalizing of its registry of marriage licenses and baptismal statements, among others, with the current registry dating to 1920.

The Archdiocese's current website already allows users to electronically request the issuance of several print documents, with the digitization process to allow the bypassing of print copies and visits to offices.

