

31/03/2021

Holy Land places of worship reopen

The Church of the Holy Sepulcher and the Church of the Nativity in the Holy Land have reopened to worshippers, as a significant improvement in epidemiological situation in Israel allowing for an easing of Covid-19-related restrictions.

The mandatory wearing of face masks and social distancing between worshippers are still imposed, however.

