

01/04/2021

Serbian Patriarch Porfirije meets with country's education minister

The Patriarch of the Serbian Orthodox Church, His Holiness Porfirije, met this week with the country's minister of education, sciences and technological development, Branko Ružić, with the Primate referring to the good cooperation between the Church and the specific ministry.

Among others, His Holiness called on the minister to upgrade the lesson of religious studies in primary and secondary public schools.

