

The patriarch of Alexandria congratulates the president of Egypt

On the occasion of the beginning of the holy month of Ramadan, I wish to address my fraternal wishes from the bottom of my heart, to all our Muslim fello-citizens in the blessed land of the Nile.

Once again this year humanity is still suffering from the Covid-19 pandemic, from which unfortunately hundreds of our fellow humans have lost their lives to this unequal battle. We pray night and day, that humanity may return to its normality, and that joy and hope may reign on earth.

I great and congratulate His Excellency the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, Mr. Abdel Fatah el Sisi and the contribution of the Egyptian Authorities who preserve the health of our fellow-citizens as well as peace in the Land of the Nile. I personally wish His Excellency the President and the peace-loving people of Egypt that the Almighty God will protect us all from all danger and will grant us the rich mercies of health and peace.
