14/04/2021

Holy Easter Services in municipal spaces on isle of Samos

The Metropolitan of Samos and Ikaria, His Eminence Eusevios, this week received assurances from the municipal authorities on the eastern Aegean island of Samos that municipal halls will be made available to the Church for this month's Holy Services of Easter Week, given the damages incurred by cathedrals and chapels on the island from a 7 on the Richter scale earthquake that struck the region last October.