

20/04/2021

Archbishop of Albania: Citizens should vote in elections; Orthodox believers do not belong to any party

The Archbishop of Tirana and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, referred to a duty by citizens to cast their vote in elections, speaking during a sermon on the fifth Sunday of Great Lent in Tirana, and ahead of general elections in that country on Sunday, April 25.

Moreover, His Beatitude underlined that Orthodox faithful in Albania are not bloc supporters of any political party.

