Serbian Patriarch receives Mayor of Belgrade

His Holiness Porfirije, Serbian Patriarch, received the Mayor of Belgrade, Professor Dr. Zoran Radojicic at the Serbian Patriarchate in Belgrade, on April 27, 2021-

Serbian Patriarch Porfirije in a cordial conversation with the Mayor of Belgrade emphasized the importance of cooperation between the Serbian Orthodox Church, but also other traditional churches and religious communities, with the city authorities for the benefit of all residents of the capital city.

It was agreed that there are several open issues that will be resolved in the best possible way if the views and needs of all stakeholders are taken into account. According to Patriarch Porfirije, in that sense, the Serbian Orthodox Church is always willing to discuss and help resolve open issues together.

Mayor Radojicic thanked the Serbian Patriarch for the constructive approach, understanding and support in the cooperation of the Belgrade city government with the Serbian Patriarchate and the Archbishopric of Belgrade and Karlovci, emphasizing that he is personally available to resolve all current issues.
